

American Journal of Public Health
Nonexclusive Rights Agreement for Images

The following agreement is intended to allow AJPH to crop, enlarge, reduce, and/or otherwise modify the image (described below) for use on the cover and/or inside of a Journal issue. The copyright holder grants AJPH the right to use this image in the print Journal, in the electronic Journal, and in any subsequent reprints of the article in which it appears. This image may also be used for the promotional purposes of the American Public Health Association and/or the publication. The photographer or artist retains the copyright to the image.

Agreement

I hereby grant nonexclusive, perpetual, irrevocable, and world-wide permission to the American Journal of Public Health to use, to crop and/or modify if necessary, to reproduce, and to distribute the photo/artwork/texts/table/illustration, herein referred to as the image, as described below, in print, online, and in subsequent reprints. I certify that I have obtained written permission (model release) from any human subject photographed.

Name of copyright owner or authorized agent Signature Date

AJPH- _____
Manuscript number Corresponding Author

Please check one:

- I am the artist/photographer
 I am the authorized agent for the artist/photographer

Description of the Image:

Print Name and Address Below:

Please send a completed copy of this agreement to:

American Journal of Public Health, APHA, 800 I Street NW, Washington, DC 20001-3710
email: ajph.submissions@apha.org

Both Author and Copyright Holder should keep a copy of this agreement in their file for future reference.